Answer TWO Questions

QUESTION ONE

“Before the advent of Western civilization marriage was within the reach of every average man; but now the heavy expenses often incurred in wedding celebrations have reached such proportions that it is extremely difficult for a man of limited means to acquire a wife at all” (J.W.A. Amoo, 1946). Explain the African concept of marriage and bring out some of the problems young people in Ghanaian society today encounter when they want to marry. Suggest some solutions for dealing with them. (35 marks)

QUESTION TWO

With the Yoruba concept as an example, discuss the concept of sin in African Traditional morality. Your discussion should include three definitions of sin, three forms of sin, four consequences of sin and four ways of removal of sin. (35 marks)

QUESTION THREE

“In olden times there were no police men and no need of them; the gods were the policemen.” What role did supernatural agents play in the enforcement of morality in a typical traditional African society like yours? (35 marks)

QUESTION FOUR

What are values? With specific examples explain SIX social and moral values entrenched in African societies. (35 marks)
