SECTION B: 30 Minutes

Instructions : Answer two (2) questions from this section.

1. Distinguish between sale of goods and other contracts. 5 marks

2. How can employers use knowledge of business law expand their business and minimize liability exposure?

Identify one area of expansion, the areas of law that will have to be considered and their potential legal impacts. (5 Marks)

3. Discuss whether or not liability can be imposed in the following case:

- Charles is employed as a doorman by Lion Lion plc, a company that owns a chain of nightclubs throughout the UK. One night, whilst working at one of Lion Lion's clubs, he is alerted to a drunken customer who has been kicking the toilet doors and has caused substantial property damage. Charles ejects the customer, but in doing so, he breaks the customer's arm. Would your answer differ if Charles had been expressly prohibited from manhandling troublesome customers? (10 Marks)

4. Has anyone ever broken a promise to you? Were those promises legally enforceable promises? Why or why not? (5 Marks)
