

Social Entrepreneurship in Focus: Evidence from Ghana

- Chapter
- First Online: 01 November 2023
- pp 107–124
- Cite this chapter

Small Business and Entrepreneurial Development in Africa

- Atsu Nkukporu,
- Kwame Adom &
- Etse Nkukporu

- 155 Accesses

Abstract

This chapter aims to highlight some social entrepreneurial initiatives in health, education, and technology. Through the use of policy documents and literature review, the authors found that most of the social entrepreneurial initiatives in Ghana are primarily anecdotal. This suggests that empirical evidence to substantiate what social entrepreneurs claim they are doing in Ghana needs to be given more attention. The chapter then proposes some recommendations.